Eligibility for Exhibition:

- Works will be accepted for consideration provided they have not been previously exhibited at OAC and must have been created in the last 3 years. Original works in all media will be accepted for consideration (including but not limited to painting, electronic, experimental 2D, glass, ceramics, wood, photography, and other traditional and nontraditional art forms).
- 2D work including fiber must be framed, or finished, and ready to hang with wire or 2 rings if heavy (no saw-tooth hangers). 3D work must be ready for display. OAC will not accept works with frayed/flimsy wires, or unbalanced/tipsy sculptures, etc. If special instructions for installation are needed, please attach them to this form.
- Please make sure work and framing is clean. OAC will not display work with dirty glass, dusty frames, faded mats, etc. Sculptures and all 3D work must be clean and dust/cobweb free as well.
- NO WET PAINTINGS WILL BE ACCEPTED NOR WILL ANY WORK THAT IS NOT YET DRY AND READY FOR HANDLING UPON DELIVERY -sorry NO EXCEPTIONS.

*OAC has total and final say in placement and inclusion of work and use of display elements such as pedestals, etc.

Entry Procedure:

To be included in the exhibit, works must be delivered to Oliver Art Center on the drop-off dates indicated. An entry form must be filled out and signed and all work must have identification (artist name, phone number, and email) on the back.

The jurors this year are: Mark Mehaffey and Liz Celeste (see website for more info)

Sales:

Oliver Art Center receives 30% of retail price to be established by the artist. Sales tax will be added. All artists who sell $600 or more per year at OAC will receive a 1099 tax form.

Agreement:

- Oliver Art Center will accept responsibility for works of art during the exhibition but will not be responsible for any pieces delivered in damaged condition. We will insure art while in our care per this agreement.
- The art submitted for exhibition will remain the property of the artist until sold.
- It is agreed that due care will be taken of each piece of art submitted. However, it is also agreed that OAC, and/or its representatives, will not be held liable for situations over which they have no control, such as fragile artwork not in protective housing.
- The artwork will remain in the gallery for the duration of the show - the artist agrees to remove the artwork by the pick-up date indicated above. Oliver Art Center is not responsible (and will not insure) art left on our site past the pick-up, or the unaccepted pick-up, due dates and may take possession of the work after 30 days.
- The gallery committee or jurors reserve the right to the final selection of works. Unaccepted art will be held until unaccepted pick-up dates unless otherwise notified by Oliver Art Center.

By signing below, you are indicating agreement to all terms and conditions listed and that the artwork submitted is an original created personally by the artist and release photographic rights to Oliver Art Center for the purpose of promoting the exhibit and posting on their website and social media outlets.
